BIO

Mary Anibal is an award-winning Zimbabwean singer, songwriter, and mbira virtuoso at the forefront of Afro-fusion music. Passionate about women's rights, she fuses advocacy with artistry; bridging ancestral rhythms and modern soundscapes. Her trailblazing approach earned her the 2023 Zimbabwe Music Award for Best Traditional (Chinyakare/Chimurenga), honoring both her mastery and her role in reviving local traditions.

A seasoned performer, Mary has graced international stages from Toronto's Habari Africa Festival to Zanzibar's Sauti Za Busara and Côte d'Ivoire's MASA Festival, enchanting audiences with her powerful performances. Recent appearances in Germany and Switzerland have further cemented her global reputation as a cultural ambassador.

Her 2024 debut album Maria Wenyu showcased her evocative songwriting and intricate mbira artistry, earning widespread acclaim for its seamless blend of tradition and innovation. In April 2025, she followed up with Bhonzo, a spirited anthem of determination and Zimbabwean resilience.

Through her music and advocacy, Mary Anibal continues to inspire change, celebrate African pride, and uplift voices across generations.
